3. When should Brihaspati Chalisa be recited?

Brihaspati Chalisa is best recited on Thursday morning after bath and prayer, as Thursday is associated with Guru or Jupiter. It can also be recited daily by devotees who want to strengthen Jupiter's blessings.

4. How should I read Brihaspati Chalisa?

Sit in a clean place, light a diya, offer yellow flowers or sattvic items, chant "Om Brim Brihaspataye Namah" and then read Brihaspati Chalisa with devotion. Keeping the mind calm and the intention pure is very important.

5. What are the benefits of reading Brihaspati Chalisa?

Reading Brihaspati Chalisa is believed to support wisdom, education, marriage, children's blessings, prosperity, respect, spiritual growth and relief from weak or afflicted Jupiter effects. It also helps develop patience, faith and positive thinking.
